Service to NACUBO Award

Purpose: To recognize outstanding individual contributions to NACUBO professional development programs and publications.

Selection Criteria: Award criteria include but are not limited to:
- Nominee must work at a NACUBO member institution.
- Nominations may include supporting documentation (e.g., publications, news articles, recommendations, examples of committee/task force work, etc.).
- Self-nominations will be considered.
- Business and corporate partners will not be considered.
- Awards will not be given posthumously.

Please include information on the candidate’s contributions, if applicable, to:

Professional Development Programs
- Work that advances professional development offerings (e.g., events, webcasts, podcasts, microlearning offerings).
- Participation on committees, task forces, councils, etc.
- Participation in advocacy and/or research efforts.
- Frequency of contributions.

Publications
- Contributed work to NACUBO’s newsletters, books, etc.
- Subject matter information (e.g., a topic of widespread concern in the field or of acknowledged importance).
- Frequency of contributions.

Award Details: Recipient will receive an inscribed plaque and complimentary NACUBO 2022 Annual Meeting registration, transportation, and hotel accommodations under the guidelines of the NACUBO non-staff travel policy.

Award Promotion: NACUBO will publicize news of the award recipients in national and local media outreach in NACUBO Current newsletter, and in other NACUBO media channels, as well as in national and local media outreach.