RE: Provisional/IOC Alternative

Dear:

The School Participation Team has completed its review of the fiscal year ended 06/30/2009 audited financial statements of.

In assessing the financial strength of, our financial analyst reviewed the financial statements using the indicators that are set forth in regulations at 34 C.F.R. § 668.171 (copy enclosed).

Financial Ratios 34 C.F.R. § 668.171(b)(1)

These statements yield a composite score of out of a possible 3.0. A minimum score of 1.5 is necessary to meet the requirement of the financial standards. Accordingly, fails to meet the standards of financial responsibility as described in 34 C.F.R. § 668.172, Financial Ratios.

In view of its failure to meet the financial responsibility standards, may continue to participate in the Title IV, HEA programs by choosing one of two alternatives:

1. Letter of Credit (LOC) Alternative (34 C.F.R. § 668.175(c))

Under this alternative, is required to submit an irrevocable letter of credit in the amount of. This amount represents 50% of the Title IV, HEA program funds received by the Institution during its most recently completed fiscal year. By choosing this option, the Institution qualifies as a financially responsible institution.

2. Provisional Certification Alternative (34 C.F.R. § 668.175(f))

Under this alternative, must post a letter of credit in the amount of and be provisionally certified for a period of up to three complete award years. This amount represents 10% of the Title IV, HEA program funds received by the Institution during its most recently completed fiscal year.

must comply with all of the requirements specified for the Provisional Certification Alternative in 34 C.F.R. § 668.175(f), including the Zone Alternative in 34 C.F.R. §§668.175(d)(2) and (3), and Requesting Funds 668.162(e), including the disbursement of Title IV, HEA program funds under the cash monitoring 1. By choosing this option, acknowledges that it has not met the U.S. Department of Education’s (Department) standards of financial responsibility. Upon receipt of the LOC, the SPT will issue a new Provisional Program Participation Agreement that specifies the requirements identified with the Provisional Certification Alternative.

Compliance with Zone Alternative Requirements

1) Method of Payment – is required to make disbursements to eligible students and parents under either the cash monitoring or reimbursement payment method as described under 34 C.F.R. § 668.162(d) and (e). If the institution selects the provisional certification alternative, the institution will be placed on the cash monitoring 1 payment method.

Under the Cash Monitoring 1 payment method, the institution must first make disbursements to eligible students and parents before it requests or receives funds for the amount of those disbursements from the Department. The funding request may not exceed the amount of the actual disbursements that were made to the students and parents. The institution is permitted to draw down funds through the Department’s electronic system for grants management and payments,'G5, for the amount of disbursements it made to eligible students and parents so long as the student accounts are credited before the funding requests are initiated. The institution may credit student accounts and draw federal funds on the same banking day.

2) Notification Requirements – is required to provide information to the SPT by certified mail or electronic or facsimile transmission no later than 10 days after any of the oversight or financial events, as described below, occur. must also include with the information it submits, written notice that details the circumstances surrounding the event(s) and, if necessary, what steps it has taken or plans to take, to resolve the issue.

- Any adverse action, including probation or similar action, taken against the Institution by its accrediting agency, State of Missouri or other Federal agency;
- Any event that causes the Institution, or related entity as defined in the Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) 57, to realize any liability that was noted as a contingent liability in the Institution’s or related entity’s most recent audited financial statements;
- Any violation by the Institution of any loan agreement;
Any failure of the Institution to make a payment in accordance with its debt obligations that results in a creditor filing suit to recover funds under those obligations;

- Any withdrawal of owner's equity/net assets from the Institution by any means, including by declaring a dividend; or

- Any extraordinary losses as defined in accordance with Accounting Principles Board (APB) Opinion No. 30

- Any filing of a petition by the Institution for relief in bankruptcy court.

Action Required
