Biography

Anne C. Gross

Vice President, Regulatory Affairs
National Association of College and University Business Officers

Anne Gross has been on the staff of NACUBO for more than twenty-five years. She oversees the association's efforts to represent the interests of college and university business officers with government agencies; to gather, analyze, and disseminate information on a wide range of issues; and to provide members with the resources they need to do their jobs.

Anne has participated in numerous negotiated rulemakings with the Department of Education over the years, including several iterations of the cash management rules.
